

Mining companies that we understand are currently or potentially involved in the Philippines - directly or through subsidiaries/holdings and joint ventures – are:

Anglo American (UK/South Africa)
Anvil (Canada)
Barrick Gold (Canada)
BHP Billiton (UK/Australia)
Cambrian Mining (UK)
Crew Gold/Development/Minerals (UK/Norway/Canada)
Kelso
Lafayette (Australia)
Lepanto
Metals Exploration (UK)
Mindoro Resources (Canada)
MTL Philippines (UK)
Oceana (Australia)
Philippine Gold (UK)
Rusina (Australia)
Sumitomo
Thistle (Canada)
Toledo (UK/Philippines)
TVI (Canada)
Xstrata (Swiss/UK/Australia)

We understand that these companies are now seeking to raise finance in London, Melbourne and Toronto for their operations in the Philippines.

Banks and investors we believe to be currently or potentially involved are:

ABN Amro
AXA UK
AXA Sun Life
Coutts
Deutsch Bank (London)
Goldman Sachs
HSBC Nominees (Australia)
JP Morgan Chase
Standard Chartered
UBS (UK)