

Ian Halstead is an Investment Consultant with L&P Financial Trustees, a leading provider of financial, legal and investment advisory services to charity and religious organisations in Ireland, the UK and Europe. Ian graduated from Trinity College Dublin with an Honours BA degree in Business and Economics in 1996. Ian worked in AIB Capital Markets before joining L&P in 2000, where he provides investment advisory services to clients, specialising in ethical investment solutions. Ian recently received a Professional Diploma in Financial Advice and has lectured on socially responsible investment management to audiences in the voluntary sector.