

Janet Lynch is a Trustee for Britain Yearly Meeting (Religious Society of Friends/Quakers). She had careers in education and accountancy, was for 12 years on the board of a housing association managing about 4,000 properties, including as chair, and for 15 recent years extensively involved with community initiatives in West Cornwall before moving to Bristol. She is a member of a team training Quaker treasurers at Woodbrooke Quaker Centre in Birmingham annually.