

Lee Coates is founder-director of Ethical Investors Group, an independent financial advice firm dedicated exclusively to ethical investment, and Ethical & Environmental Screening Services. He is an Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute and of the Institute of Financial Planning. Uniquely 50% of Ethical Investors' profits from commissions and fees are donated to charities and campaign groups each year. To date, over £400,000 has been donated. Ethical & Environmental Screening Services provides social and environmental screening services to charities, faith groups and ethical investment funds. Lee was awarded an OBE for services to ethical business and finance in the 2011 Queen's Birthday Honours.